

STAY ONBOARD

PEOPLE FIRST

Setting the foundation for sustained growth

FACT SHEET

Wellbeing and Lifestyle

Improve Mentoring Programs for Warfare Workgroups

Generating a holistic approach to a Warfare Community Mentoring Program

Status: In-Progress
Lead: Head Navy Capability

TARGETING

All Warfare Workgroups

WHEN

Q3 2023

YOU GET

Access to contemporary mentoring for professional development

Benefits

- Contemporary mentoring programs available for all Warfare workgroups
- Professional development of technical and social mastery
- Generate warfighting culture and Esprit de corps within the Warfare Community

Next Steps

- Engage Navy Culture in development of best practice mentoring programs suitable for Warfare workgroups
- Present holistic approach to Warfare Community Steering Group Apr 23
- Baseline all current mentoring within Warfare workgroups by Q3 23
- Rollout mentoring programs by Q4 23

More Information

The approach to mentoring will aim to foster an innovative, decisive and integrated community culture designed to defence values and behaviours that strive for professional mastery, changes readiness and warfighting ethos.

VIEW CAMPAIGN UPDATES

Submit your feedback and questions:
navy.retention@defence.gov.au

For more information visit:
navy.gov.au/stay-onboard