The 3rd ‘King-Hall’ Naval History Conference will be held in Canberra on 24-25 July 2003. The conference is a collaborative effort between: the Royal Australian Navy’s Sea Power Centre-Australia; the School of History, University of New South Wales, Australian Defence Force Academy; and the Australian Naval Institute.

The broad theme of the conference is “The Navy and the Nation”. It’s aim is to bring about a wider understanding of the contribution the Australian Navy has made to national development up to the present and the potential it has to do so in the future.

Speakers include Professor George Baer from the US Naval War College, Professor Geoffrey Till from the UK Joint Services Staff College and Professor Peter Edwards, the Official Historian for South-East Asian Conflicts.

GENERAL INFORMATION
Venue: Telstra Theatre, Australian War Memorial, Campbell, ACT.
Registration: $150.00 per person
(This includes lunch, morning tea, afternoon tea and the published book of the proceedings)
Conference Dinner: A dinner will be held on the evening of 24 July at HMAS HARMAN. This will be in conjunction with the Australian Naval Institute (ANI) Annual dinner. Seats are limited.
